A good turnout for the January Predictor Handicap with the rain holding off until the finish. All runners set off together and with no watches allowed this made it a case for good pace judgement if that predicted time was to be matched. The Predictor winner was Fiona Martin who was spot on with her time followed by Tony Croft who was delighted to be faster than predicted. It was good to see three new Handicappers with young Ella Leonard running well after the Lancs XC the day before. Mum Suzanne, 3rd on prediction, also did well after the Lancs XC, whilst Andy Slater ran with wife Rachel to learn the course. With James Unsworth pulling away it was quite close at the front of the field with 6 runners all within 14 secs of each other but a little way off their predicted times! Thanks once again to Liz and Tony for officiating for us for without them the event could not take place.
